What Participants Have Said About Cana II

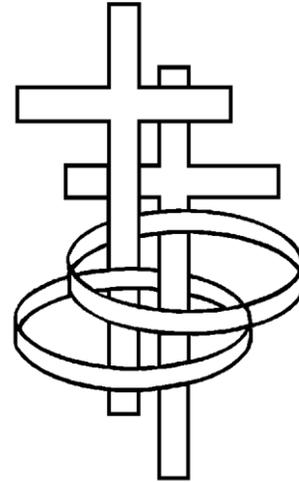

The topics were especially pertinent to couples in second marriages.

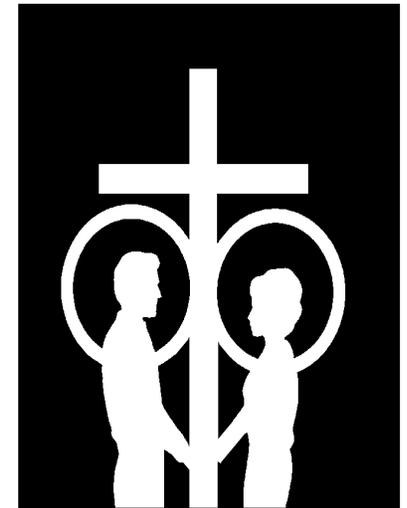

The speakers were terrific and I appreciated their frankness and ability to share 'real life' stories with us.

I would come to hear the same speakers again. They were that good!

I wasn't sure what to expect – just hoped for the best and am grateful for the wisdom shared and discussions that transpired here today. It was thought provoking, informative and welcoming.

Cana II

A Marriage Preparation Program

For couples entering a second marriage

Sponsored by the Diocese of Grand Rapids

Overview

The Diocese of Grand Rapids recognizes that a traditional Pre-Cana program does not always meet the needs of couples who are entering into marriage after a previous bond. With this in mind, the Diocese of Grand Rapids – Office for Family Life and the Diocesan Tribunal developed Cana II. The Cana II program is a helpful resource for individuals who wish to understand and address issues and concerns that are often a part of second marriages. The program includes presentations, question and answer, group discussion, and couple-to-couple dialogue.

Participants

The program is designed especially for individuals who are planning to enter a second marriage.

This includes:

- widows/widowers
- divorced individuals that are in the annulment process or have received their annulment
- couples seeking convalidation

Couples who have recently entered into a second marriage will also benefit from attending the Cana II program.
