

February 8, 2008

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Peggy Helsel, Catholic Charities West Michigan
616-356-6290
phelsel@ccwestmi.org

CATHOLIC CHARITIES WEST MICHIGAN ANNOUNCES AGENCY RESTRUCTURE

CATHOLIC CHARITIES USA EARNS HIGH MARKS FROM AMERICA'S LARGEST CHARITY EVALUATOR

Grand Rapids, Michigan – Catholic Charities West Michigan (CCWM) has recently restructured its agency into three major towers of service along with forming a strong administrative team in order to better serve its clients throughout the 11-county Diocese of Grand Rapids.

All current programs have been reorganized under these three towers of service: Child Welfare and Family Preservation, Behavioral Health and Social Supports – all comprehensive and results-oriented programs designed to help individuals and families succeed.

CCWM also announces the following staff appointments:

Bob Enders – Chief Financial Officer

Pam Cohn – Chief Operating Officer

Peggy Helsel – Vice President of Development and Marketing

Karynn Sikkema – Vice President of Finance

Linda Sullivan – Vice President of Social Support

Luke Reynolds – Vice President of Behavioral Health

Cyndi Musto – Senior Director of Behavioral Health

Deborah McCormack, President and CEO of CCWM, recently said, “Like Catholic Charities USA, we have a strong commitment to the people we serve and our donors who support the services. We are proud to be part of an agency that is nationally awarded and welcomes higher levels of accountability and responsibility.”

Catholic Charities USA has earned Charity Navigator's highest rating, a 4-star, and has been named the 8th most fiscally responsible charity in the nation by the same organization, which is America's largest charity evaluator.

“Catholic Charities USA stands out not just as one of the most fiscally healthy, but also for their strong commitment to respecting the rights of donors. Their inclusion on our top 10 list of Slam Dunk Charities signals to the public that Catholic Charities USA is worthy of its trust and support,” said Trent Stamp, President of Charity Navigator.

Providing Help. Creating Hope.

In the spirit of God's love, Catholic Charities West Michigan engages our diverse communities in nurturing, stabilizing, and empowering children, families, and adults to achieve their full potential. Catholic Charities West Michigan provides help and creates hope throughout the 11-county Diocese of Grand Rapids, without regard to race, religion or background.

For more information, please contact:
Peggy Helsel, Catholic Charities West Michigan
616-356-6290
phelsel@ccwestmi.org

# #

Providing Help. Creating Hope.