

What do I have to offer?

Change the World

"I am convinced that if we can make stewardship part of our faith life we can truly change the world. We can make this a much better place in which to live—not just for us, but for everyone. I am convinced of this because I am convinced that it will attack the selfishness that besets all of us. It turns the mine to ours; it turns self to others. It turns us from just loving ourselves to loving others as Jesus loves them."

Bishop John J. McRaith
Diocese of Owensboro, Kentucky

The Gifts of God

Think of God's gifts in broader terms, not simply the material goods or security you may enjoy. These are gifts, too:

- Your faith, hope, love, and joy
- Your family love and relationships with others
- Your intelligence, talents, and skills
- Your imagination, compassion, and vision
- Creation in all its splendor

Our Catholic tradition teaches us that with so many blessings come great challenges. At all times in our lives, we have an opportunity—and a responsibility—to share what we have been given.

Stewardship: The call to Young Adults

This is a call to young adults everywhere to renew the face of the Earth. This is a call to listen to the voice of the Spirit speaking of gratitude and responsibility. This is an invitation to Catholic stewardship.
